SUBJECT: TERMINATION OF PATIENT/CLIENT TRANSPORTATION SERVICES
AGREEMENT WITH APT AMBULANCE COMPANY, INC.

This is to advise your Board of the termination of the Department of Mental Health (DMH) Patient/Client Transportation Services Agreement with APT Ambulance Company, Inc. ("APT Ambulance"), Agreement No. MH020020, effective July 1, 2007. Board approval for this Agreement was given on June 5, 2007, Agenda No. 36.

This Agreement is being terminated because APT Ambulance declared bankruptcy and sold its assets to Care Medical Transportation, Inc. effective July 1, 2008. The Contractor, APT Ambulance and subsequently Care Medical Transportation, Inc., has been paid in full for all approved invoices and all services have since ceased.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this termination, please contact me or your staff may contact Tony Beliz, Ph.D., Deputy Director, Emergency Outreach Bureau at (213) 738-4924.

Dear Mr. Carlisle:

This is to confirm that the Department of Mental Health (DMH) has been notified that APT Ambulance Company, Inc. declared bankruptcy and sold its business, effective July 1, 2008, to Care Medical Transportation, Inc. while under contract with DMH.

The Contractor has been paid in full for all approved invoices and all services have since ceased.

In the future should you, as the surviving entity, desire to participate in providing patient/client transportation services under contract with DMH, you may contact Julie Valdez of my staff at (562) 651-5002.

Sincerely,

Tony Beliz, Ph.D., Deputy Director
